

RED FLAGS OF A TIMESHARE SCAM

We get it.

Navigating the world of timeshares can be tricky, and unfortunately, scams are all too common. Knowing how to spot the red flags can save you from falling victim to deceptive schemes.

This quick guide outlines the top five warning signs of a timeshare scam and offers practical tips to help you protect yourself.

Stay informed and empowered by recognizing the tactics these timeshare representatives often use.

TCR Timeshare
Contract
Resolution

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM TIMESHARE FRAUD BY SPOTTING THESE COMMON WARNING SIGNS:

01

High-pressure sales tactics

Pushy representatives who demand immediate decisions.
"Today-only offers" with no chance to review the contract

02

Upfront fees

Requests for large upfront payments without clear services rendered.
Promises to sell or rent your timeshare for a fee.

03

Too-good-to-be-true Promises

Guarantees of unrealistic profits or resales.
Claims that they can quickly relieve you of your timeshare obligation.

04

Lack of Transparency

Refusal to provide detailed contracts or legal documentation.
Vague or evasive answers to your questions.

05

Unverifiable Credentials

No verifiable business address, phone number, or legitimate website.
Fake or misleading company names that mimic reputable business.

Be Cautious.

By staying aware of these red flags and taking proactive steps, you can protect yourself from timeshare scams.

Remember, knowledge is your best defense. Trust your instincts, ask questions, and seek professional advice when necessary.

With caution and awareness, you can make informed decisions and avoid falling victim to fraudulent schemes.

If you suspect you've encountered a timeshare scam or want more information on protecting yourself, don't hesitate to reach out.

Contact Timeshare Contract Resolution - your most trusted consumer advocacy group for guidance.

Knowledge is power — stay informed, stay protected, and take control of your timeshare decisions!

Take action today!

Kate Bakker

D: 949-910-1085

kate@tcresolution.co

TCR

Timeshare
Contract
Resolution